

Falling Asleep in Class

By Kenn Nesbitt

I fell asleep in class today,
as I was awfully bored.
I laid my head upon my desk
and closed my eyes and snored.

I woke to find a piece of paper
sticking to my face.
I'd slobbered on my textbooks
and my hair was a disgrace.

My clothes were badly rumped and my eyes were glazed and red.
My binder left a three-ring
indentation on my head.

I slept through class, and probably
I could have slept some more,
Except my students woke me
as they headed out the door.
