

All these Links!?!?!?

Let's make this easy – it's not as bad as it looks.

The Chaperone / Volunteer form – you can fill this one out right now. I just want to know if anyone can volunteer from time to time and who'd like to chaperone a field trip or help out with a classroom party. If you already filled this out online, simply drop your printed copy in the tray at the back table. If you emailed it, consider it submitted.

Homework for Parents (it's not time consuming – just a couple things)

Welcome To 4th Grade – a parent info pack explaining selected 4th grade procedures and highlighting some school information. – read this at your leisure.

Dear Student – a letter to your child telling about myself and also giving them a pre-writing assignment (just a list of ideas for now).

Homework Questionnaire: How you'd like me to handle your child's homework if absent

Mr. S. Website - tells you what's on there – check it out at home.

Schedule of Periodic Assignments

Sample Homework: Week-at-a-Glance – a sample of how I post homework on Renweb. This is a "Week-at-a-Glance" – always start select your date for the Monday of the week and then click on "Print Week". Remind me to discuss that tonight if I forget.

Class Schedule (chapel and non-chapel weeks)

Online textbook info – how to view the textbooks online – an alternative to carrying these books home.

Monthly Reading Calendars – explains how students should log in their outside reading. This is important to understand. Sample included.

Behavior Information – behavior and work habit expectations, rewards, and consequences. Read both sides – it also tells what's expected if your child wants to become a patrol-in-training in April – requirements explained.
